

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY POLICY

Yorke Institute is committed to promoting equal opportunity in its service delivery in recognition of global principles of equity and justice.

Yorke Institute is committed to the highest quality in education and training.

Yorke Institute is committed to being fair, equitable and sensitive to the diverse needs of its student's in all its policies and procedures and to supporting access by disadvantaged groups with due regards and respect for the sensitivities of all stakeholders

In order to meet its obligations under this policy, Yorke Institute undertakes to promote equal opportunity in all aspects of its activities by eliminating any remaining unlawful direct and indirect discrimination on the grounds of:

- Race, colour, national or ethnic origin, nationality
- Sex or gender, lawful sexual activity, marital status, pregnancy or potential pregnancy, breastfeeding, status as a parent or carer
- Religious or political belief or activity, industrial activity
- Age, physical features, disability (past, present or imputed), medical record
- Personal association with a person who is identified by reference to any of the above listed attributes; and
- On any other ground which Yorke Institute shall after due consideration determine to be a basis of discriminatory practice